Prime Minister Askar Mamin has had negotiations with his Uzbek counterpart Abdulla Aripov in Urgench today and participated in II Uzbekistan-Kazakhstan Interregional Cooperation Forum, Kazinform reports.

During the meeting Askar Mamin noted that the agreements signed on further augmentation of the bilateral trade dictates the necessity to actively implement the existing agreements and search for new areas of common interest.

«Thanks to the political will of our leaders, strategic partnership between Kazakhstan and Uzbekistan moved to a brand new level,» said Askar Mamin.
