PRESIDENT VUCIC HAS DESTROYED DEMOCRACY IN SERBIA

- 02.03.2020

European Western Balkans (28 February 2020)

Dragan Đilas

Belgrade

Vučić points out that democracy in Serbia is in danger. And that's true. However, this was not due to self-proclaimed opposition leaders. The truth is that democracy in Serbia was conquered and destroyed during the eight-year-long autocratic rule of Aleksandar Vučić, writes the president of the opposition Justice and Freedom Party Dragan Đilas in an opinion piece for Euractiv.

European Western Balkans previously published conclusions from an opinion piece written by the Serbian President Aleksandar Vučić for Euractiv, where Vučić states that democracy in Serbia is under attack by self-proclaimed opposition leaders. We also published the responses of the representatives of Serbian opposition – the leader of the Free Citizens Movement Sergej Trifunović and Peoples Party leader Vuk Jeremić. Both parties are members of the Alliance for Serbia – a coalition of opposition parties founded in September 2018.
