

AVRASYA
İNCELEMELERİ
MERKEZİ
CENTER FOR EURASIAN STUDIES

SLOVENIA: GOV'T PLANS TO GIVE THE MILITARY POLICE POWERS AT THE BORDERS

- 02.04.2020

Independent Balkan News Agency (1 April 2020)

Mladen Dragojlovic

The Slovenian government has adopted a motion that, if passed in Parliament, will activate a legislative provision that gives the military limited police powers in controlling the border. For it to pass, the proposal needs the support of two-thirds of MPs. The National Assembly might could discuss on it as soon as Thursday.

The National Assembly could also discuss a mega-package of support measures worth EUR 3 billion to help companies and individuals cope with the ongoing coronavirus pandemic.

Click for more

Kaynak/Source: