
GREECE TO REOPEN TO TOURISTS ON JUNE 15

-

22.05.2020

CNN (21 May 2020)

Elinda Labropoulou

Greece has brought forward its planned reopening to tourists to June 15 as pressure mounts on European destinations to roll back coronavirus restrictions to stave off economic collapse.

Greek Prime Minister Kyriakos Mitsotakis announced the new date in a national address on Wednesday, saying only tourists from countries with acceptably low rates of virus infection would be permitted.

He confirmed that most flights to the country would resume by July 1.

Click for more

Kaynak/Source: