COMMISSION CALLS FOR FULL REOPENING OF BORDERS WITHIN EU

05.06.2020

EurActiv (5 June 2020)

The European Commission on Thursday (4 June) called on EU member states to lift all border restrictions by the end of June, Home Affairs Commissioner Ylva Johansson told Euronews, saying the virus situation was fast improving in many countries.

We are coming very close to a situation where we should lift all the internal border restrictions and border checks, EU Home Affairs Commissioner Ylva Johansson told Euronews, speaking on the eve of a videoconference of European home affairs ministers.

Tomorrow I'm going to propose that the member states should lift all the internal border checks as soon as possible, and I think a good date should be the end of June, she added.
