
AUSTRALIAN ARMY ENDS TRAINING MISSION IN IRAQ AFTER TEACHING 47,000 LOCAL TROOPS HOW TO FIGHT ISIS

-

05.06.2020

Daily Mail (5 June 2020)

Australia's training mission at the Taji Military Complex in Iraq has come to an end.

The operation to train Iraqi troops to fight ISIS has been up and running since 2015 but was scaled back earlier this year due to coronavirus.

There are no Australian troops left at the Taji complex near Baghdad and the mission has been concluded.

Click for more

Kaynak/Source: