
KYRGYZSTAN'S PRESIDENT GOES INTO QUARANTINE

-

25.06.2020

Anadolu Agency (24 June 2020)

Bishkek

Nazir Aliyev Tayfur

Kyrgyzstan's President Sooronbay Jeenbekov on Wednesday went into quarantine after cases of the coronavirus were detected in his accompanying delegation during his trip to Russia.

Jeenbekov and his delegation were tested for the coronavirus after they returned from Russia, according to a statement by the presidential press office.

The presidents test result has yet to come, and he will remain in quarantine, the statement added.

Click for more

Kaynak/Source: