The proposed EU recovery plan aims to keep our economies afloat, but it is vital not to lose sight of the journey towards a more sustainable economy, write Sirpa Pietikäinen, Bas Eickhout and Paul Tang.

Sirpa Pietikäinen is an EPP MEP, Bas Eickhout is a Green MEP and Paul Tang is a Socialist and Democrat MEP.

In the midst of a storm of epic proportions, we need to keep our economies afloat. It remains vital, however, not to steer off course and to maintain a clear view of our direction and envisioned destination.
