The borders between Iran and Azerbaijan are the borders of peace and friendship, Commander of the Border Guards of Iran, Brigadier-General Ahmad Ali Goudarzi said, Trend reports.

Goudarzi made the remark during an inspection of the Iranian-Azerbaijani border checkpoints in Iran's Namin city.

There are no problems at the common borders of the two neighboring states. For a long time, there were no issues on the border between the two countries, and both parties comply with the concluded agreements, the brigadier-general noted.

There are also no problems at the border in Ardabil province. This is a safe region. Thanks to the vigilance and efforts of the border guards, Iran's borders are fully secured, stressed Goudarzi.
