
ARMENIA DEPUTY PM RECEIVES OUTGOING BELARUS AMBASSADOR

-

10.07.2020

News.am (9 July 2020)

Deputy Prime Minister of Armenia Mher Grigoryan today received outgoing Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of Belarus to Armenia Igor Nazaruk, as reported the Government of Armenia.

Greeting the Ambassador, Deputy Prime Minister Grigoryan expressed gratitude to Nazaruk for the contributions he made to the development of the Armenian-Belarusian relations during his term of office. Grigoryan also emphasized that there is great potential for development of the trade and economic relations between the two countries and attached importance to not only the deepening of the bilateral relations, but also the expansion of cooperation within the Eurasian Economic Union.

Ambassador Nazaruk expressed gratitude to the Deputy Prime Minister for the kind words.

During the meeting, the parties highly appreciated the growth of the trade turnover amid the current obstacles, and the Ambassador attached importance to the regular flights to and from Yerevan and Minsk, especially during the pandemic.

<https://news.am/eng/news/590350.html>

Kaynak/Source: