
AUSTRIAN HEALTH MINISTER WANTS TO CORONAVIRUS MEASURES FOLLOWING COURT RULING

-

29.07.2020

EurActiv (28 July 2020)

Philipp Gröll

At a press conference, Anschober commented on the verdict, admitted mistakes, and vowed improvement.

The constitutional judges specifically objected to the ban on leaving the house and the regulations on opening shops that were issued later.

While both regulations are no longer in force today, ongoing administrative criminal proceedings concerning these regulations must also be discontinued. The question of amnesty and reimbursement of paid fines is currently being evaluated. The topic is considered highly sensitive and legally problematic.

Click for more

Kaynak/Source: