Asharq Al-Awsat (17 September 2020)

Iraqi Prime Minister Mustafa Al-Kadhimi on Wednesday revealed that there are thousands of delayed development projects, some of which dating back to 2008, in different ministries that affect multiple governorates.

During a visit to Maysan governorate (400 km south of Baghdad), Kadhimi said that mismanagement has stalled the implementation of many government projects.

He added that it was a crime against the rights of Iraqi citizens.
