Middle East Monitor (21 September 2020)

The President of the Supreme Judicial Council of Iraq, Judge Fayege Zaidan, yesterday called on the government to disclose the outcomes of its investigations into corruption, Anadolu reported.

Zaidan made the call on the sidelines of his meeting with the head of the governments investigation committee into corruption cases, Lieutenant General Ahmed Abu Ragheef.

The results of the investigation committee must be presented to the public to avoid any misinformation regarding the issuance of arrest warrants or the actual arrest of persons who had not been arrested, Judge Zaidan said in a statement.
