The Criminal Court in Skopje heard testimony on Tuesday from two prominent journalists in the so-called Target-Fortress trial, which is seeking to determine responsibility for the large-scale illegal wiretapping scheme that was revealed in 2015.

Prosecution witness Sase Dimovski, a veteran reporter who covers judicial topics, told the court that he had suspected that he was being bugged since 2010 after he published an article in which he asked whether several prosecutors were being wiretapped.
