
KYRGYZSTAN'S ACTING PRESIDENT MAY SEEK CONSTITUTION CHANGE TO RUN FOR FULL TERM

-

20.10.2020

CNN (19 October 2020)

Kyrgyzstan's new acting President Sadyr Japarov, who came to power last week in a popular uprising, may run for a full term if the country amends its constitution to allow it, Russia's TASS news agency quoted him as saying on Monday.

The Central Asian nation's constitution bars caretaker Presidents from running in the elections they oversee. Japarov took over as acting President last week after unrest toppled his predecessor Sooronbai Jeenbekov's government.

Click for more

Kaynak/Source: