Politico (1 December 2020)

Its been a turbulent year for Ursula von der Leyens Class of 2019.

Since 26 fresh-faced commissioners and one president took office on December 1 last year, even the Commissions youngest members have been aged by the coronavirus pandemic. It also cost one commissioner his job.

In the year that brought a health crisis, an economic crisis and rewrote social and working norms, whos had the best year in the Berlaymont and whos struggled to make their mark? Heres POLITICOs report card on the von der Leyen Commission.
