Muslim Shahdan, a senior commander of Iran's Islamic Revolutionary Guards Corps (IRGC), was killed Monday in an airstrike along the Syrian-Iraqi border, according to local sources.

There was no immediate claim of responsibility for the strike, in which unidentified warplanes targeted the commander and his three bodyguards near a village in Syrias eastern Deir ez-Zor province.

The attack was carried out days after the assassination of Iran's top nuclear scientist Mohsen Fakhrizadeh.
