
KOSOVO LOCAL ELECTION SENDS RULING PARTY A WARNING SHOT

-

02.12.2020

Balkan Insight (30 November 2020)

Xhorxhina Bami

Pristina

Extraordinary local elections held in the municipalities of Podujeve/ Podujeva and North Mitrovica are seen as sending two signals; in one, they confirmed the growing popularity of Kosovos biggest opposition party, Vetevendosje and, in the other, Belgrades continued influence in the Serb-majority north.

The two municipalities held extraordinary elections on Sunday after their previous mayors took up central government positions.

Click for more

Kaynak/Source: