Public Radio of Armenia (9 December 2020)

US co-chair of the OSCE Minsk Group Andrew Schofer will visit Armenia and Azerbaijan this weekend, Acting Assistant Secretary for European and Eurasian Affairs Philip Reeker said on Tuesday.

He [Schofer] will be going this weekend with the other co-chairs to both capitals □ Baku and Yerevan □ to see where we can get the co-chairs back into a role to try to move forward on a diplomatic solution, Reeker said during a hearing at the Helsinki Commission.

Reeker also said that the United States will continue to watch closely the situation in Nagorno-Karabakh and considers the OSCE to be the right platform to raise the matter with the other countries.
