Iraqi News Agency (6 April 2021)

The Parliamentary Security and Defense Committee confirmed today, Tuesday, that there are measures to prevent the recurrence of attacks on Iraqi bases.

Committee member Muhammad Hussein Abu Dhar said, in a statement to the Iraqi News Agency (INA): "There are ongoing discussions with the security services in the Ministry of Defense and Interior to increase support and provide advanced devices such as surveillance cameras, strengthening air defenses, and intelligence effort, in addition to increasing pre-emptive operations." And others to reduce these attacks.
