ECHR RULES OBLIGATORY VACCINATION MAY BE NECESSARY

- 08.04.2021

Deutsche Welle (8 April 2021)

The European Court of Human Rights (ECHR) ruled on Thursday that compulsory vaccinations are legal and may be necessary in democratic societies.

The ruling came following the conclusion of a complaint brought to the court by Czech families regarding compulsory jabs for children.

"The measures could be regarded as being 'necessary in a democratic society'," the court judgment read.
