

AVRASYA

INCELEMELERI

MERKEZI

CENTER FOR

EURASIAN STUDIES

SEBASTIAN KURZ: FROM POLITICAL WUNDERKIND TO ROGUE OPERATOR

-	08.04.2021

Politico (8 April 2021)

By Matthew Karnitschnig

Sebastian Kurz, a political wunderkind who became Austrias leader at just 31, rose to power by cultivating a youthful, do-gooder image that endeared him to young and old alike.

And then he went rogue.

A cache of private text messages between the center-right chancellor and his deputies and other correspondence uncovered by Austrian authorities as part of a sweeping investigation into political corruption portrays Kurz not as the well-mannered favorite son-in-law of the nation who captured the heart of his compatriots and much of the EU, but rather as a shrewd behind-the-scenes operator willing to do whatever it takes to push through his agenda, whether dealing with the Catholic Church, doling out political favors or taking on rivals.

Click for more

Kaynak/Source: