A large Iraqi delegation from the Ministry of Defense arrived in Beirut today, Monday, to deliver the Iraqi donation approved by the Council of Ministers.

The director of the Iraqi Media Network office in Beirut, Amin Nasser, told the Iraqi News Agency (INA), "A large Iraqi delegation that includes 12 military commanders and an administrative officer from the Ministry of Defense arrived today at Rafic Hariri Airport in Beirut."

"The delegation will hand over the Iraqi donation estimated at three million dollars to the Lebanese Army Command, which was approved by the Iraqi Council of Ministers to assist Lebanon," he added.
