Kazinform (14 June 2021)

The President received the U.S. Special Representative for Afghanistan Reconciliation Zalmay Khalilzad, who arrived in Kazakhstan on a working visit, Kazinform has learnt from the Akorda press service.

During the meeting, they discussed the prospects for the development of the Kazakh-US enhanced strategic partnership in the context of ensuring security and stability in Afghanistan, including in the light of the withdrawal of US and NATO troops from this country. In addition, they touched upon the coordination of bilateral and multilateral efforts for the stabilization and socio-economic reconstruction of the Afghan state.

Welcoming the American diplomat, the President noted that his visit is important in terms of maintaining high-level dialogue between Kazakhstan and the United States.
