Montenegros Minister of Justice, Human and Minority Rights, Vladimir Leposavic, told Vijesti on Sunday that the country had received no news from Belgrade about its demand for the extradition of the former president of the State Union of Serbia and Montenegro, Svetozar Marovic.

Montenegro issued a warrant for Marovics arrest and in 2019 formally sought his extradition from Serbia. In December 2020, the newly elected government said it had renewed the request, which came after a BIRN investigation revealed the familys business activities in Serbia.
