NEW BOSNIAN PEACE ENVOY INHERITS MISSION IMPOSSIBLE

- 10.08.2021

Bosnia's new international High Representative, German Christian Schmidt, touched down at the beginning of August, but he will have scant opportunity to enjoy the dog days of the Bosnian summer.

Of his predecessors, perhaps only the first High Rep, Sweden's Carl Bildt, faced such a tough task in ensuring civilian implementation of the Dayton peace accord and protecting the territorial integrity of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

Some 26 years and seven High Representatives later, many of the improvements made in the first few years after Bosnia's 1992-95 war have been reversed.
