The successful implementation of public health policy has been a top priority for the Government of Slovenia and Prime Minister Janez Janša has certainly managed very efficiently the funds allocated to provide Covid-19 vaccines for his countrymen. Furthermore, Slovenian Foreign Policy has delivered tangible results pertaining to international trade and economic diplomacy as well as strengthened the geopolitical dialogue in Europe through its prestigious Bled Strategic Forum. Janša's administration has been transparent and very effective in the allocation and expenditure of EU funds for recovery. Although international public perception and some European Institutions have reacted positively towards the impressive accomplishments of Slovenian Government; Ljubljana is seriously shaken by homegrown political retaliation and propaganda intimidation shaped by Tanja Fajon, whose role as European Parliamentarian in Brussels enables her to actively operate against her homeland in Europe and across the continent.
