Special services of Tajikistan, Iran, China, Kazakhstan, Pakistan, Russia and Uzbekistan have called on the international community and international organizations to develop and common approach to solving Afghanistan problems.

Representatives of special services of these countries gathered in Dushanbe yesterday to discuss the current situation in Afghanistan and its possible impact on the region.

A statement adopted by the meeting participants, in particular, notes the importance and necessity of forming an inclusive government, taking into account the interests of all ethnic, social and confessional groups, according to Khovar.
