
AL RUBAIE MEETS GERMAN AMBASSADOR MARTIN YEAGER

-

25.10.2021

Iraqi News Agency (24 October 2021)

The head of the Sadrist movement's political body, Nassar al-Rubaie, affirmed Iraq's quest to be an attractive factor for investment, while German Ambassador Martin Yeager indicated that the elections were very good and took place with full transparency.

The media office of the Sadrist movement's political body said in a statement, that "the head of the Sadrist movement's political body, Nassar al-Rubaie, received today the German ambassador in Baghdad, Martin Yeager," noting that "a number of issues on the Iraqi arena and the results of the recent elections were discussed." which took place on the 10th of October.

Al-Rubaie stressed, "Iraq has sought to be an attractive factor for investment with sober international companies working to rebuild the country's infrastructure in a manner that serves the interests of the country and the citizen," noting that "the next government is the government to implement the government program and provide services to citizens."

Click for more

Kaynak/Source: