Tehran Times (21 November 2021)

Iran and Azerbaijan are going to sign some agreements for cooperation in various energy sectors in the near future, Iranian Oil Minister Javad Oji announced on Sunday.

Oji made the announcement after a meeting with Azerbaijan's Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Economic Development Shahin Mustafayev in Tehran, Shana reported.

Speaking to the press after the meeting, Oji said positive talks were held and constructive agreements were reached between the two sides.
