
AL KADHIMI DISCUSSES WITH THE BRITISH FOREIGN SECRETARY ENDING THE COMBAT ROLE OF THE INTERNATIONAL COALITION

-

07.12.2021

Iraqi News Agency (6 December 2021)

Prime Minister Mustafa Al-Kadhimi and British Foreign Secretary Lise Truss discussed today, Monday, the joint coordination to end the combat role of The International Coalition.

"Al-Kadhimi received, today, a phone call from British Foreign Secretary Lise Truss, during the call, they discussed bilateral relations between the two countries, and ways to develop them in the political and economic and investment fields, they also discuss developments in the region and Iraq's pivotal role in promoting stability", said Prime Minister office in a statement, received by The Iraqi News Agency (INA).

The statement added that both sides also reviewed the future cooperation of the two countries in the war against terrorism , pursuing the remnants of ISIS terrorist gangs, the joint coordination between Baghdad and London regarding ending the combat role of the International Coalition, and the transition to the role of advice, assistance and empowerment, in a manner that enhances security and stability in Iraq and the region.

<https://ina.iq/eng/15937-al-kadhimi-discusses-with-the-british-foreign-secretary-ending-the-combat-role-of-the-international-coalition.html>

Kaynak/Source: