Foreign Minister Jeyhun Bayramov and US State Secretary Assistant for European and Eurasian Affairs Karen Donfried have discussed steps to normalize post-war Azerbaijan-Armenia relations, the Foreign Ministry has reported.

In a phone conversation on December 6, the two senior officials also focused on the latest developments in the region.

Donfried described Azerbaijan's transfer of 10 Armenian servicemen to Armenia, as well as Armenia's submission of mine maps to Azerbaijan, as positive development and progress towards normalizing ties.
