
TURKISH, GREEK OFFICIALS TO MEET TO DISCUSS 'POSITIVE AGENDA'

- 21.02.2022

Hurriyet Daily News (21 February 2022)

Senior officials from Turkey and Greece will meet to discuss political and economic ties within the context of positive agenda, as well as their disagreements stemming from the Aegean Sea in Athens amid an ongoing quarrel over the latter's armament of the islands close to Turkey's coasts in violation of international law.

A statement issued from the Turkish Foreign Ministry over the weekend informed that Deputy Foreign Minister Sedat Önal will meet Greek Deputy Foreign Minister Kostas Fragkogiannis in Athens on Feb. 21.

The meeting will take place in the context of the positive agenda dialogue between the two neighboring countries, focusing on the economic and trade sectors.
