On Friday February 18, UNHCR, the UN Refugee Agency, in Tajikistan received 20 tons of humanitarian cargo provided by the European Union (EU) and the Government of Japan that arrived in Tajikistan through the Termez Cargo Center in Uzbekistan.

According to the EU Delegation to Tajikistan, the delivery is part of the joint UNHCRs and donors efforts to assist the Government of Tajikistan in preparation for the possible refugee influx from Afghanistan.

The first shipment of humanitarian supplies reportedly includes 104 Refugee Housing Units, which is a part of a consignment to Tajikistan, which also includes sleeping mats, kitchen sets, plastic sheets and other core relief items.
