Exit News (3 March 2022)

On Thursday, the Serb members of Kosovo parliament boycotted the vote on a resolution condemning the Russian aggression against Ukraine.

The resolution passed with 94 out of 120 votes, receiving support by Kosovo parties across the spectrum, except for the Lista Srpska party which is controlled by Belgrade.

Printed Ukrainian flags reading We Stand with Ukraine were left on each MPs desk by parliament administration before the session. Serb MPs did not participate in a photo of all MPs holding the Ukrainian flag, and later they turned upside down the flags on their desks before boycotting the vote on the resolution.
