Deutsche Welle (14 March 2022)

Ukraine says it wants an immediate ceasefire and Russia's withdrawal of troops as talks resume. A top negotiator said only then could regional relations and political differences be discussed.

- Ukraine wants immediate ceasefire and withdrawal before going further
- Fourth round of Ukraine-Russia talks kick off virtually
- Zelenskyy says Kyiv's negotiators pushing for direct talks with Putin
- Ukraine's army expects fresh attacks by Russian forces
- Ukrainian officials to try to evacuate more citizens through corridors

Ukrainian Foreign Minister Dmytro Kuleba has called for sanctions to be ramped up further against Russia, urging a global boycott of international companies keeping their operations open in Russia.
