The Ambassador of Uzbekistan Kadambay Sultanov met in Helsinki with the Minister of Foreign Trade of Finland Ville Skinnari, Dunyo correspondent reports.

According to the minister, the Finnish-Uzbek agenda of relations has great potential due to the mutual development of specific initiatives and plans for interaction. The sphere of business, education, as well as inter-parliamentary cooperation are the most effective tools for stimulating it.

The current transformations in Uzbekistan and reforms to diversify the economy create new opportunities to raise the level of confidence among foreign businesses, Ville Skinnari said.
