Hurriyet Daily News (29 April 2022)

Turkey has criticized Greece for escalating tension in the Aegean Sea by provocative flights close to the Turkish coast, reiterating Ankaras unchanged position for a peaceful resolution to pending problems between the two neighbors.

The statements of the Foreign Ministry of Greece concerning the incidents that took place between the Air Forces of the two countries in the Aegean Sea on April 27, 2022, do not reflect the truth, Foreign Ministry spokesperson Tanju Bilgiç said on April 29 in a statement in response to a question regarding the Greek Allegations on Airspace Violations and Overflights in the Aegean Sea.

Bilgiç recalled that the Greek Air Force conducted provocative flights in close proximity to the Turkish coast and repeatedly violated Turkish airspace over Didim, Datça and Dalaman on April 26 and 28.
