BNT News (11 May 2022)

The first F-16 Block 70 fighter jets will arrive in 2025, Chief of Defence Admiral Emil Eftimov, who took part in a forum of the Atlantic Club, told BNT on May 11.

Deputy Defence Minister Yordan Bozhilov said that Ukrainian military experts are in Bulgaria to explore the capabilities of the countrys military-industrial complex to repair weapons and equipment. In a video-conference, former Ukrainian President Petro Poroshenko urged NATO member states to admit his country to the alliance at the Madrid summit in June.

Strengthening defence capabilities on NATO's eastern flank, increasing the compatibility of armed forces within the Alliance and continuing assistance to Ukraine were the main topics of the forum organised by the Atlantic Club.
