Azerbaijani president and his Turkish counterpart 'stressed the importance of achieving peace in the region as soon as possible' in phone call

Azerbaijans President İlham Aliyev said Monday that Baku agreed with Armenia on the opening of the Zangezur corridor, including the construction of both railways and highways.

In a statement, Azerbaijan's Presidency said Aliyev spoke over the phone with Turkish President Recep Tayyip Erdoğan and updated him on a trilateral meeting between himself, Armenian Prime Minister Nikol Pashinyan and European Council President Charles Michel in Brussels on Sunday.
