Tajikistan and Turkmenistan have discussed the possibility of launching a joint oil processing facility, according to the Tajik MFA information department.

This issue was reportedly discussed at a meeting of Tajikistan Ambassador to Turkmenistan Farrukh Sharifzoda with Director-General of the Closed Joint-Stock Company (CJSC) Turkmen National Oil and Gas Company (NAPECO) Maksat Pirliyev that took place in Ashgabat on May 20.

The two discussed the bilateral trade and economic cooperation between Tajikistan and Turkmenistan and exchanged views on launching the joint venture to process petroleum and produce petroleum products as well as on supplying petroleum products to Tajikistan, the Tajik MFA information department says.
