Foreign Minister Fouad Hussein agreed today, Monday, with the Foreign Ministers of Egypt, Samih Shoukry and Jordan, Ayman Safadi, to hold continuous meetings to face challenges and enhance tripartite cooperation, while Safadi said that his country will start supplying Iraq with electric power at the beginning of next year.

Hussein said during a press conference after his meeting with the foreign ministers of Egypt and Jordan, which was attended by the correspondent of the Iraqi News Agency (INA): "We discussed with the foreign ministers of Egypt and Jordan the situation in the region and the world," noting that "we discussed with the foreign ministers of Egypt and Jordan issues concerning the three countries."
