Russias Foreign Ministry on Tuesday summoned Markus Ederer, the European Unions ambassador to Moscow, over Lithuanias decision to ban transit of goods under EU sanctions to Kaliningrad.

Vilnius has barred the transit of goods subject to EU sanctions through Lithuanian territory to and from the Russian semi-exclave of Kaliningrad.

Moscow conveyed its decisive protest to Ederer over the unilateral anti-Russian restrictions on cargo transit between the Kaliningrad region and the rest of the Russian Federation, read a Foreign Ministry statement.
