The Sofia Globe (22 June 2022)

The government of Prime Minister Kiril Petkov lost a vote of no confidence in Parliament on June 22, with 123 MPs voting in favour of the motion, 116 opposed and no abstentions. The vote was held 24 hours after the end of a lengthy debate in the National Assembly.

This outcome was expected, given that cable presenter Slavi Trifonov withdrew his ITN party from the government coalition earlier this month, citing the issues of North Macedonia and the Budget revision.
