Kazakh President Kassym-Jomart Tokayev held a meeting with Prime Minister Irakli Garibashvili of Georgia on the sidelines of the Qatar Economic Forum, Kazinform cites Akorda.

The meeting discussed the current issues of bilateral interaction.

«I'd like to draw your attention to the prospects for the development of cooperation in the following areas. In particular, the expansion of mutual trade. I believe that the deliveries of goods could be increased. Georgia, in its turn, possesses great reserves to increase supplies to Kazakhstan and other countries of Central Asia. We are ready to cooperate very closely in the area,» said Tokayev.
