France and Romania inked a letter of intent (LOI) aimed at increasing the cooperation between the two countries in the naval field.

According to the French Ministry of Armed Forces, the LOI was signed on 15 June 2022, on the sidelines of an official visit by French President Emmanuel Macron. The head of state was visiting French soldiers deployed to Romania as part as NATO's reinforcement following Russia's invasion of Ukraine.

The LOI was signed by the new French Minister of Armed Forces, Sébastien Lecornu, and by his Romanian counterpart, Vasile Dincu. According to the official French MoD statement:
