TRT News (30 June 2022)

More and more people are leaving the Bundeswehr, saying they did not expect an armed conflict. The number is twice as large as last year.

The number of Germans seeking to quit their service in the countrys armed forces, Bundeswehr, has doubled since the Russian invasion of Ukraine, the mass-circulated weekly Der Spiegel has reported.

From January to June 2, the Federal Office for Family and Civil Society received 533 applications to leave the service, which is twice as many as last year. The number of applications last year was 209.
