Mehr News Agency (30 June 2022)

The incident occurred in Zakho city in Dohuk province, according to the reports.

The camp is home to Yezidi refugees displaced by attacks by the ISIL terrorist group from 2014 to 2017.

According to reports, the fire was huge and has so far burned 22 tents.

The Kurdish authorities have not yet commented on the cause of the fire and its possible casualties.
