The Minister of Foreign Affairs of Tajikistan Sirojiddin Muhridin participated in a regular meeting of the Council of Foreign Ministers of the Shanghai Cooperation Organization (SCO) member nations that took place in Uzbekistans capital, Tashkent, on July 29.

Xinhua says the foreign ministers who participated in the meeting fully affirmed the important role played by the SCO in consolidating the strategic mutual trust among member states, promoting regional development and prosperity, and deepening people-to-people bonds. They reportedly believed that solidarity and coordination should be further strengthened, and multilateralism should be activated, so as to adapt to the rapidly changing international situation.

They agreed to expand mutually beneficial cooperation, improve the level of regional connectivity, and believed that the SCO will play a greater role in promoting the stability of international production and supply chains.
