Assistant Foreign Minister (FM) for European Affairs Ehab Nasr visited Armenia to hold political consultations with a number of Armenian senior officials.

During his visit, Nasr held a meeting with Armenian Foreign Minister Ararat Mirzoyan. They exchanged views on ways to boost bilateral relations between both countries as well as important regional and international issues of common interests.

Moreover, Assistant FM held talks with the deputy environment minister to discuss the ongoing preparations for the 27th conference of the parties to the United Nations Convention on climate change (COP27), which will be held in Sharm El-Sheikh next November.
